

Organised by
Turku Stem Cell Transplantation Unit
Turku University Hospital &
University of Turku

Location:
Mauno Conference Center,
President's Auditorium, BioCity,
Tykistökatu 6, Turku

XXI TURKU SYMPOSIUM ON STEM CELL TRANSPLANTATION

Friday 24.5.2019 PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

- 12:00 Coffee, snacks + exhibition
- 12:45 Opening words
Director of SCT unit, Chief Physician Maija Itälä-Remes, Hematology & SCT unit, Turku University Hospital
- 13:00 Seeing the invisible – imaging of cancer invasion and pluripotency
Prof. Johanna Ivaska, University of Turku, Centre for Biotechnology
- 13:45 Single cell sequencing – prospects for stem cell transplantation studies
MD, PhD. Mikko Keränen, Department of Hematology, Helsinki University Hospital
- 14:15 Chimerism monitoring after allogeneic hematopoietic SCT
MD Juha Ranti, Hematology & SCT unit, Turku University Hospital
- 14:45 coffee break + exhibition
- 15:30 T-cell-replete haploidentical transplantation
Prof. Nicolaus Kröger, University Hospital Hamburg-Eppendorf, Germany
- 16:15 Relapse after allogeneic SCT: Role of HLA loss
Prof. Katharina Fleischhauer, University Hospital Essen, Germany
- 17:00 Pathophysiology of acute GVHD
Prof. Robert Zeiser, University Medical Center Freiburg, Germany
- 17:45 Close of the Symposium
- 18:30 Bus transportation to the Symposium Dinner

INFORMATION: www.vsshp.fi/en/toimipaikat/tyks/to5/Pages/Turkusymposium.aspx

REGISTRATION: by May 6th 2019 via www.lyyti.fi/reg/TurkuSymposium_24052019

FURTHER INFORMATION: Coordinator Jaana Pakola, email: jaana.pakola@tyks.fi

5 hours theoretical training credits have been applied from University of Turku for the following specialities: clinical hematology, infectious diseases, internal medicine, clinical chemistry, pediatrics, oncology.

